Over the past few weeks we have been confronted by multiple atrocities of violence and hate, resulting in the meaningless loss of lives and the brokenness of families and wider communities all across the world.

These terrible events can distort our perspective of humanity, or, it can put life back into perspective: reminding us of what really matters. That it is not the things, but the people in life that matter. And it reminds us how small, seemingly insignificant things, can rob us of our joy. Sometimes we struggle in our own times of brokenness, where our joy is forever being robbed from us, and we have forgotten how it was to live life well.

What we do know is that Jesus offers us peace, and welcomes us into his family and the kingdom of heaven. Right now. This isn't a manufactured peace of our own reassurance, or reassurances that the world and material things would offer. This peace is supernatural, as he said to his disciples, and to us:

In John 14:27 (AMP), Jesus says, "Peace I leave with you: My [own] peace I now give...to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid." It is this same peace that offers reconciliation and restoration to all, no matter what cultural climate or brokenness we may experience: "Through Jesus, God reconciled everything to Himself. He made peace with everything in heaven and on earth by means of Christ's blood on the cross" Colossians 1:20

As we enter the month of August 2016 we approach the 10th edition of LifeWell conference! Lifewell Conference 2016 "Heaven on Earth" is all about partnering with God in prayer and practice to see the wholeness of heaven come to all the broken places and human hearts on earth. If you haven't already, I want to encourage you to sign up and experience what God has in store for you through the incredible worship, and powerful messages shared by our invited speakers. Furthermore, I will be taking the challenge this year to enable someone else to attend conference, and I encourage you to do the same!! Invite, buy a conference pass, and bring them to an evening rally. Bless them. Buy one today in faith that you'll have someone to give it to! If you know of someone that needs to see breakthrough in an area of their life, to see freedom from brokenness, or just to share the joy that is LifeWell Conference.

Our hope and prayer is that you would see Heaven come alive in your life and the lives in your communities as you come and experience what God has prepared for you through LifeWell Conference this year.

Can't wait. See you There!

That Book!

Here's wonderful news – reading God's Book causes people to abandon their unbelief about him.

How does this happen?

First, since it is essential for us to know God's will, then such information must be readily available. Sure enough, nine-tenths of his will for our lives is already made known to us in the Bible.

Second, it makes sense that our Creator would want to show us his recipe for successful living. And surely we ourselves are keen to know all about that.

Third, God is quite emphatic in saying, “I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go.” Psalm 32.8.

Who does this instructing? He does. This task isn't left to someone else. That shows us its importance.

Fourth, nor does God take a holiday from helping us. “The Lord will guide you continually.” Isaiah 58.11.

What a privilege. What a generous overseer he is. How tireless is his care for us. We could ask for no greater provision. Yet some people say that they are satisfied to seek their daily guidance from the stars! Well I prefer to be guided by the God who made the stars.

“The Lord gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding.”
