Quick to love God

Are we quick to love God? We should be.

How shameful when even God's own people fail at this point.

The prophet Isaiah lamented that lesser creatures know better – “Even the animals – the donkey and the ox – know their owner and appreciate his care for them, but not my people Israel.” Isaiah 1.3 (Living Bible).

We once had a dog with a perfect technique for making people like her. She had never read a book on psychology but she knew how to win our affection. How did she do it? Simply by liking people herself.

Her interest in me was so sincere and so genuine that I couldn't keep from liking her in return. I loved her because she first loved me.

Forgive me if I'm hinting that we should all be like that lowly dog!

She never complained about the food, never bore a grudge, never griped about the way the house was kept. And she loved children. No matter how noisy and boisterous they were, she loved every minute.

If a mere dog can show such love to humans, how can humanity fail to return the love God himself has for us?

How astonishing is God's meekness, allowing humanity to dishonour him – even for a minute!

Prayer Points

Our Church – for every marriage to be strengthened, that for those whose partners are not followers of Jesus that their partners would have an encounter with him, and come closer to him. For others that God would be at the centre of their relationship, that God would draw them together in love, grace and service of one another.

Our Community – for every person from the community who comes into and engages with New Beginnings that it might be a place where they can experience the love of Jesus and move closer to him. That they might find hope and peace in Jesus.

Our City – pray for the peace and prosperity of Adelaide (read Jeremiah 29:7), thank God for the safe, good and wonderful city in which we live.

Send “I will pray” + “full name” + “email or mobile” to prayer@enfieldbaptist.com.au to join us every week
