Woman to Woman Starts next Tuesday 20th September 7pm. Register this week so you don't miss out. Contact the office for more details. Every woman carries with her the strengths and weaknesses of her background. She carries the legacy of her past into all her relationships - family, business and church. This program will show participants how to free themselves from the past and focus on the future. It will provide strategies and skills needed to make positive and lasting changes in relationships.

Congratulations

To Andrew and Ruby on their marriage next Saturday the 24th September. As a church community we wish God's blessing on the life commitment you are making.

Prayer Points

This week we are praying for -

Our church – for energy, patience, and a reliance on the Holy Spirit for all of the volunteers who passionately serve in our Kids & Youth Ministries.

Our community – for an opportunity to have a meal or coffee with someone in the spaces we frequent.

Our city – for people who are undervalued to know that they are loved and valued by God and his church.

Send “I will pray” + “full name” + “email or mobile” to prayer@enfieldbaptist.com.au to join us every week

Finding God Part 1

Can a child find God?

A child understands kinship between two people long before understanding the stating of a truth.

So before he has any vocabulary at all, he easily relates to his mother and other persons around him, and recognises that these people are in relationship one to another as well as separately to themselves

And if these individuals are also in kinship with God, this too will eventually be noted by the child. As parents and other acquaintances talk to God, it will be apparent to the infant that he is witnessing a bond of a special kind, one which inspires reverence and commitment.

At an early age a child can have his own part in this. It may start with a simple and obvious prayer, saying “Thank you” for his food. This is quite meaningful because it is linked with one of the youngster's chief experiences.

Can a little one find God? Yes, provided that the child's education in spiritual things occurs at the same time and in the same natural way as his education in all the other phases of living.

Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me.” Matthew 19.14.

Will we?

“Our children too shall serve him,
for they shall hear from us”
