Prayer Points

This week we are praying for -

Our church – for us to know and feel God's amazing love for us and that we might share that love with others in our day.

Our community – for the needs of the people you come into contact with today.

Our city – for the many Indigenous First Peoples of our nation and city that together we can walk towards healing, justice, hope, and peace.

Send “I will pray” + “full name” + “email or mobile” to prayer@enfieldbaptist.com.au to join us every week

God treasures us?

How do we know that God treasures us?

First, if he didn't value us he would never have made the effort to create us in his own image (Genesis 1.27), with ability to love, desire purity, pursue justice, seek after truth.

Second, if he didn't value us he would never have continued to support us, meeting our every need and showering us with his good things despite our hostility and ingratitude.

Third, if he didn't value us he would never have been interested to draw to himself criminals, drunkards, prostitutes, and others who are converted only through the great love of his Son, Jesus.

Fourth, if he didn't value us he would never have bothered to teach us, through Jesus, to love our enemies – who are also made in God's image – treating them with kindness, not returning evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary blessing.” 1 Peter 3.9.

Fifth, if he didn't value us he would not be requiring us to love him. Mark 12.30. Some think they show their love for God by becoming suicide bombers and blindly killing those he made in his own image. What we value should be influenced by what God values.

“You (Lord) treat us with kindness and with honour, never denying any good thing to those who live right.”
